Sand Probes

The Ruelco sand probe is a normally open or normally closed relay which when used with a thin wall probe will detect and indicate excessive corrosion inside of a pipeline. The Relay will indicate field personnel that inspection or repair of the flowline is necessary.

Ruelco is Pleased to Welcome Calvin Shoemake as our New COO

Ruelco would like to introduce our newest employee. Calvin Shoemake has accepted our offer of employment as Chief Operating Officer. His employment with Ruelco was effective as of April 1, 2014.

Calvin has over forty years of experience in increasingly responsible roles within executive management at several companies. In his most recent position, Calvin was President of Fortress Wood Products and helped the company realize tremendous growth during his tenure.

As Chief Operating Officer, Calvin is responsible for managing all hands-on operational aspects of the company. Specifically, Calvin will lead our efforts in these areas:

- Provide day-to-day leadership and management to a service

- Provide day-to-day leadership and management to a service organization that mirrors the adopted mission and core values of Ruelco. Bottom Line: Build a beautiful company.
- Responsible for driving Ruelco to achieve and surpass sales, profitability, cash flow and business goals and objectives.
- Responsible for the measurement and effectiveness of all processes internal and external. Provides timely, accurate and complete reports on the operating condition of Ruelco.
- Spearhead the development, communication and implementation of effective growth strategies and processes.
- Collaborate with the management team to develop and implement plans for the operational infrastructure of systems, processes, and personnel designed to accommodate the rapid growth objectives of our organization.
- Motivate and lead a high performance management team; attract, recruit and retain required members of the executive team not currently in place; provide mentoring as a cornerstone to the management career development program.
- Act as lead "client-care officer" through direct contact with every client and partner.
- Assist, as required, in raising additional capital at appropriate valuations to enable Ruelco to meet sales, growth, and market share objectives.
- Foster a success-oriented, accountable environment within Ruelco.
- Represent Ruelco with clients, investors, and business partners.
